Brooklyn, NY | 954.552.7973 | AndrewScott@NewSchool.edu

Intrinsically a wordsmith, I have an inherent adroitness for navigating technology. I graduated from The New School for Social Research with an MA in journalism and a digital storytelling minor. I would love to be at a magazine in New York. I have experience in freelance journalism, editing, content management, and web design. I'm really good at finding creative solutions and leading teams, being tenacious and extremely patient.
